ORCHESTRA CONDUCTOR

Gary Good is a graduate of Eastman College of Music where he studied conducting with Vitatis Marijoisous and Donald Hunsburger. He is presently the assistant conductor of the Newton Symphony, assistant to the conductor with the Boston Ballet Orchestra, director of bands and theater orchestras at Northeastern University, and director of music at Newton North High School. Under his direction orchestral and wind ensembles have been chosen for many major appearances throughout the East, including feature performances at Music Educator Conventions. Mr. Good also maintains an active schedule as guest conductor and clinician throughout New England and the East.

ORCHESTRA MANAGER

Thomas E. Reynolds is a graduate of the New England Conservatory of Music where he majored in both music education and trumpet, having studied with Andre M. Come of the Boston Symphony Orchestra. As a student, he was manager of the internationally-acclaimed Massachusetts Youth Wind Ensemble, Frank L. Battisti, conductor, as well as being its trumpet section coach, a position he still holds. He has also done permanent substitute teaching work in the Music Department of Newton North High School. Mr. Reynolds has performed in several orchestras, including the New England Conservatory Symphony Orchestra, the Brockton Symphony, the Concord Orchestra, and the Salem Philharmonic. He is also a member of the Bridgewater Antiphonal Brass Society.

Presently, Mr. Reynolds is the Director of Music in the Quaboag Regional School District, Warren-West Brookfield, Massachusetts, and is Assistant Music Director at St. Joseph's, Wakefield, Mass. Besides being a member of MENC/MMEA, other memberships include: Pi Kappa Lambda, New England Music Festival Association, Quabbin Valley Music Educators' Association, and the National Band Association.

BAND CONDUCTOR

Dr. Jon Nicholson is a graduate of the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor. He has served as Supervisor of Music in Springfield, Vermont, and as Chairman of the Music Department of Gonzaga University in Spokane, Washington. For the past seven years, he has held the post of Director of Music in the Belmont Public Schools.

Dr. Nicholson is a member of MENC and MMEA, and is presently the Chairman of the Massachusetts Instrumental Conductors Association's Marching Band Festival. His own bands have received wide acclaim through the years, appearing in many conventions and festivals, and winning top ratings in competition. At present, the Belmont High School Marching Band is the State Champion in its class.

As a trombonist, Dr. Nicholson was principal with the Vermont State Symphony, and with the Spokane Symphony and the Chamber Orchestra while in Washington. He has also conducted numerous musicals and was regular conductor of the Spokane Choral Society.

BAND MANAGER

Elizabeth B. Chisholm holds a Bachelor of Arts degree from Boston University and a Master of Education degree from Worcester State College. She has done graduate work at Anna Maria College and Assumption College.

Mrs. Chisholm has studied trombone and baritone horn with Ernest Reopel, James Scott, Arthur Starnes, and presently with George Zakarian. She plays trombone and baritone in the Quabbin Community Band and the Bromfield Wind Ensemble, formerly in the St. Gabriel's School of Music Orchestra and the Worcester C.Y.C. Band.

She is a member of MENC and MMEA, and also active in the Quabbin Valley Music Educators' Association, in which she served as Secretary from 1975 to 1977. Mrs. Chisholm is currently teaching Instrumental Music in School District No. 64, in the town of Sterling.
