ORCHESTRA CONDUCTOR

Douglas W. Anderson is in his tenth year of teaching stringed instruments and his fourth year as Music Department Head in the Easton Public Schools.

A graduate of Boston University, Mr. Anderson began his teaching career in the Coventry, Rhode Island Schools where his orchestras attained a great deal of recognition. In Easton, Mr. Anderson's orchestras have also attained much recognition culminating in the Easton Chamber Orchestra winning the silver medal in the International Music Festival in Bermuda and giving a repeat performance at the Massachusetts State House where the orchestra was honored by the legislature. This winter, Mr. Anderson was the recipient of the Easton Jaycee's Educator of the Year Award.

Mr. Anderson has been an adjudicator and clinician in Massachusetts, Rhode Island, and Florida, and has been associated with several Title One and Title Three projects associated with music. Mr. Anderson has been conductor of the 1978 S.E.M.S.B.A. Orchestra and the 1979 Rhode Island Junior All-State Orchestra.

Mr. Anderson studied violin with Roman Totenberg and viola with Bernard Kadinoff. He is a former member of the Rhode Island Philharmonic Orchestra, Rhode Island Civic Chorale, Eastern Connecticut Symphony Orchestra, Fall River Symphony Orchestra, and Westchester Symphony Orchestra in New York. He is also a former member of the New England Fine Arts Quartet.

Mr. Anderson has been a member of the Committee for String Instruction and Performance sponsored by the Rhode Island Music Educators Association and a member of the Massachusetts Music Educators Association Executive Board where he was member-at-large (K-9) and helped coordinate the 1977 All-State Conference at the University of Lowell. He has been manager of the Southeast District High School Orchestra for two years, coordinating Chairman for the Southeast District High School Festival, and coordinating chairman for the Southeast District Junior High Festival for three years. He will be manager of the Massachusetts All-State Orchestra in 1982.

ORCHESTRA MANAGER

Mr. Langille was educated in the Worcester Public Schools and received both his Bachelor and Master degrees in Music at the Eastman School of Music, Rochester, New York. He is employed by the Worcester School System where he has been a member of the Music Department for twenty-seven years.

He has served as Orchestra manager at the All-State, and District level several times and often has been called upon as a string adjudicator at these levels. In addition to his regular school musical organizations, he has conducted for many years the Worcester All-City Orchestra and also appeared as guest conductor of the New Hampshire All-State Orchestra.

This year's Central District Junior High Orchestra manager is a professional violinist, and has been or currently is, a member of the Rochester Philharmonic, The Worcester Orchestra, and The Central Mass. Symphony Orchestra.

CHORUS CONDUCTOR

Mr. Joseph A. DiDomenico received his Bachelor of Music degree from Boston University and Master of Education degree from Bridgewater State College. He is presently Conductor of Choirs and Director of Musical Productions at Lexington High School. Before assuming his current position, he taught vocal music in the towns of Swansea and Lakeville, Massachusetts. He has been active as a vocal adjudicator for District and All-State Festivals in Massachusetts, New Hampshire, and the New England Solo and Ensemble Festival. MMEA activities have included service as Chorus Manager in both the Southeast and Northeast District, All-State Chorus Manager, All-State Concert Chairman, MENC Eastern Division Chorus Chairman.

Mr. DiDomenico has guest conducted Junior High Festivals in New Hampshire, the Blackstone Valley Festival, and served as conductor of Chorus at the Summer Youth Music School at the University of New Hampshire, as well as Director of the Regis College Glee Club. A member of the Lexington Teachers Association, MTA and NEA, Mr. DiDomenico also holds membership in Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia. Active in the American Choral Directors Association, Mr. DiDomenico has been President of the Massachusetts Chapter, and presently is serving as President-Elect of the Massachusetts Music Educators Association.

CHORUS MANAGER

Born into a musical family in 1951, Lois Mason began her music career on the piano at an early age. She later began her formal musical education at Anna Maria College, where she graduated with honors, with a Bachelor of Music in Applied Piano. In 1977 she earned a Master of Music in Theory and Composition from Boston University where she studied composition with Gardner Read.

Since 1975, she has been a member of the music staff of Tantasqua Regional Junior High School in Sturbridge where she directs four choral ensembles and teaches piano and guitar classes. She is presently the musical director for the Junior High production of The Wizard of Oz.

In addition to her teaching career, Lois has performed several piano duets in the Worcester area, composed the score to the musical, Spots and Stripes and has been a former accompanist for the Worcester Chorus. Presently, she is a member of the Quabbin Valley Music Educators Association where she has served as manager, conductor and accompanist. She is a member of several music honor societies. She also gives private piano lessons and serves as choir director for St. Anne's in Sturbridge.

Being a dedicated musician and teacher, Lois Mason believes strongly in teaching music skill and appreciation, especially to people of junior high age.
