Dr. Dwight Killam is presently Professor of Music at North Adams State College in Massachusetts where he has been on the faculty since 1973. He is well known in Massachusetts as an active member of the Massachusetts Music Educators Association and other professional affiliations. He has served MMEA in the following capacities: Chair of Western District 1963-65; Chairman of the Tanglewood Symposium Project; Vice President of MMEA Committee of Standards.

Dr. Killam is a graduate of Syracuse University where he received a Bachelor of Music Education Degree. He also earned the following Degrees from Boston University — Master of Music in 1957 and Doctor of Music Arts in 1972. Prior to his appointment at North Adams State he served as the Director of Music for the Hampden-Wilbraham Regional School District for fourteen years.

As a performer Dr. Killam has appeared as an organ recitalist in New York, Rhode Island, Maine and Massachusetts. As a clinician he has served at various events sponsored by the American Guild of Organists. As a festival conductor he has directed choirs in New York and Massachusetts. Dr. Killam's service to music and education have earned him the MMEA Distinguished Services Award, the Lowell Mason Award, and recognition in the International "Who's Who of Music and Musicians".

CHORUS MANAGER

Carol Archambault has taught vocal music in grades kindergarten through eighth in the Lancaster Public Schools for the past five years. She has previously served the Central District MMEA as the Assistant Manager of the Junior High Chorus in 1983. She has also been a conductor for the Wachusett Music Educators Association. Carol received her Bachelor's Degree in Music Education from the University of Lowell and is currently working towards a Master's of Education Degree in Creative Arts at Fitchburg State College.
