CHORUS

Director-Constance DeFotis

Constance DeFotis received her B.A. and M.M. degrees in Choral Music from the University of Illinois in Urbana and her D.M.A. in Choral Conducting from the University of Cincinnati College-Conservatory of Music. Among her major chorus preparations are collaborations with Claudio Abbado and Charles Dutoit.

Her conducting and teaching positions have included the Knabenchor der St. Hedwigs-Kathedrale in West Berlin, Vassar College, and Lake Forest College. Presently, she is on the faculty of Wellesley College. She also sings with Boston's Cantata Singers.

She is also known for her interpretations of new music, especially through performances with the San Francisco Symphony, Sudwest-funk-Orchester in Baden-Baden, and work together with Luigi Nono.

JAZZ ENSEMBLE

Director-Dan Bukvich

Mr. Bukvich is on the staff of the Lionel Hampton School of Music at the University of Idaho at Moscow, Idaho. His work in the Jazz Studies program includes Jazz Ensemble and Jazz Choir. He also teaches Percussion and directs the University of Idaho Marching Band.

Mr. Bukvich is recognized as one of the finest young composers and arrangers in the country. His works bridge numerous styles from Jazz Ensemble, Jazz Choir, and Marching Band, to serious works for Wind Ensemble and Orchestra. He has received a number of commissions from throughout the country. This year the Central District Concert Band will be performing "VOODOO" which was commissioned for the Ohio All-State Band.
