ORCHESTRA CONDUCTOR

Patrick C. Smith is a cum laude graduate of Hartt College of Music with a Bachelor of Music Education and Bachelor of Music. He studied cello with Bernard Greenhouse, Raya Garbousova and participated in master classes with Mstislav Rostropovich. He received his Master of Arts degree in Music Education at Columbia University and studied cello under David Wells at Manhattan School of Music.

He has taught in West Hartford, Connecticut, Wayland and Worcester, Massachusetts. He has appeared as a panelist and clinician at All-State and All-Eastern Conferences, and at an NSOA Summer Conference; and has been manager and adjudicator for District and All-State Orchestras.

In 1980, Mr. Smith has been orchestra director and string specialist in the Amherst-Pelham Regional School District. He has brought his orchestras and high school chamber players to All-State and All-Eastern Conferences, and has taken the high school performing groups on exchange trips and tours to New Jersey, Maine, New York, Pennsylvania, Vermont, and Canada.

During the past few years, he has gained recognition for his outstanding teaching skills and contributions to the field of music education. In 1985, Mr. Smith received a Teacher Merit Award from the Amherst-Pelham Regional School District. In 1988, he was awarded the Lowell Mason Award from the Massachusetts Music Educators Association for excellence in an outstanding contribution to the field of music education. In 1989, he received the George Olmstead Award for excellence in secondary-school teaching from Williams College in Massachusetts. In 1990, he was awarded the Director of the Year Award by the Massachusetts School Orchestra Association and the Robert Frost Chair from the Amherst-Pelham Regional School District for excellence in teaching at the high school. Finally, he is a recipient of 1991-1992 Christa McAuliffe Fellowship.

Mr. Smith has been very involved in music education in Massachusetts and other New England states as conductor at various junior and senior district festivals, as conductor at the Maine American String Teachers Association Summer Conferences, as conductor for the Maine, New Hampshire, New York-Area, North Carolina, West Virginia and Vermont All-State Orchestras, as conductor-clinician at the Massachusetts School Orchestra Association's Orchestra Festival, Pine Bluff School District Orchestra Workshop, and the String Fest sponsored by the Foundation for the Advancement of String Education, as chairperson of the Massachusetts Music Educators Association-Western District, and a President of the Massachusetts School Orchestra Association. He has also appeared as conductor with Pioneer Valley Symphony in Greenfield, Massachusetts. Presently, Mr. Smith is conductor of the Holyoke Civic Symphony in Holyoke, MA.

ORCHESTRA MANAGER

David Nystedt is a music teacher in the Worcester Public Schools. His current assignment includes keyboard, instrumental and general music instruction in the fine arts magnet program of Burncoat Middle School. He is a graduate of Eastern Nazarene College with a Bachelor of Music degree in music education.

Mr. Nystedt serves as substitute organist in Worcester area churches and is currently director of the Mendelssohn Singers of Trinity Lutheran Church.
