Orchestra Conductor

Peter Miller
Dennis-Yarmouth Regional Schools

Peter Miller has been an orchestra director and string specialist in the Dennis-Yarmouth (Massachusetts) Regional School District for nineteen years. In that time, the program has grown more than tenfold, and has been widely recognized for high performance standards.

Peter received a Bachelor of Music from the University of Rhode Island and a Master of Arts in Teaching from Rhode Island College. He has been a guest lecturer at the University of Massachusetts and was a Suzuki string instructor for the Cape Cod Conservatory. He was the founding director of the Cape Cod Ballet Society Orchestra as well as the Cape Cod Youth Orchestra. He is a violinist in the Cape Cod Symphony.

Peter is a member of Chamber Music America (CMA), serves in the National Assembly of the Music Educators National Conference (MENC), and has been elected president of the state units of the American String Teachers Association (ASTA) and the National School Orchestra Association (NSOA). He has served as an adjudicator, manager, clinician, panelist and conductor for various district, state, division and national festivals and conferences. He was honored as an Outstanding Arts Educator by the Massachusetts Alliance for Arts Education, received an NSOA Distinguished Service Award and is listed in Who's Who in American Education. Peter has served on the NSOA Executive Board as Public Relations Chair, and is presently the President of the organization.

Orchestra Manager

Don Moulthrop is currently the Band and Chorus Director at the Hale Middle School in Stow, part of the newly formed Nashoba Regional School District. Don directs Chorus, Concert Band, Symphonic Band and Jazz Band at Hale.

He received an Associate degree in Liberal Arts and Studies from Middlesex Community College and a Bachelor of Music Education degree from the University of Lowell. Don has performed professionally in the Boston area for the past 20 years.

Chorus Conductor
Peter W. Thomsen
Longmeadow High School

Peter W. Thomsen is a native New Yorker, raised in Nyack, a suburb of New York City. He received his undergraduate and graduate degrees from the Crane School of Music in Potsdam, New York. He went on to play professionally and teach for several years in Northern New York before coming to Massachusetts.

He is presently Director of Vocal Music at Longmeadow High School in Longmeadow, Massachusetts. His choral program has several male, female and mixed ensembles, all of which have received recognition at many festivals and conventions. The most select mixed choir at the high school, "Lyrics," has performed in many parts of the eastern United States including Carnegie Hall, and at Notre Dame Cathedral in Montreal, Canada.

Mr. Thomsen is a professional performer as well as a private vocal coach and teacher. Many of the groups and singers which he has worked with are presently playing and recording professionally. Each year he is also sought after as an adjudicator and guest conductor for festival choirs.

Mr. Thomsen has become known for his work with Music Technology in education. He has published many articles on the subject and offered classes and workshops for teachers at colleges and universities. He started the Longmeadow High School Music Technology program which is one of the first programs of its kind in the State.

Mr. Thomsen is a member of the American Choral Directors Association and the Massachusetts Music Education Association. He lives in Ludlow, Massachusetts with his wife Abby and his son Matthew.

Chorus Manager

Dave Gilman is currently the General Music, Chorus, & Band Director at Leicester Middle School. Dave directs the mixed chorus, concert band, & teaches general music for the sixth, seventh, & eighth grade in Leicester, MA. He has also conducted church choirs in the area and is an active member in the Music Educators' National Conference and the Massachusetts Music Educators Association.

Mr. Gilman received his Bachelor of Music Education from Anna Maria College in 1994 where he was also President of their MENC student chapter.
