A New Hampshire native, Colleen MacDonald began her musical career at the age of eight in the Manchester NH string orchestra program. She continued her studies through high school, eventually majoring in music at The Catholic University of America in Washington DC, where she earned a Bachelor of Music degree, summa cum laude. At The University of Massachusetts, Amherst she later received a Master of Music degree in Music Education with an emphasis on instrumental conducting. Mrs. MacDonald has studied conducting with Dr. Robert Garofalo, Malcolm Rowell, and Glen Asdit.

Colleen MacDonald has taught in the Weston Public Schools for the past fifteen years. Currently, she is the director of the 3rd - 8th grade orchestra program. In her tenure at Weston she has taught middle school and high school band, jazz band, orchestra and AP Music Theory. In addition to her school ensembles, Mrs. MacDonald has also conducted with the Rivers Youth Orchestra program for the past thirteen years. Currently she serves as the conductor of the Rivers Youth Philharmonia. These ensembles are audition-based groups, attracting talented string musicians from across the Greater Boston area.

Mrs. MacDonald has served as guest conductor for the New Hampshire 2006 Southwest District Middle School Festival, the 2009 Massachusetts Western District Junior Festival Orchestra, the 2010 MA Northeastern Junior District Orchestra, the 2012 MA Central Junior District Orchestra, the 2014 Southeast Junior District Orchestra, as well as for numerous March String Fests, sponsored by ASTA and MSOA.

As a member of the Massachusetts Music Educators Association, Colleen MacDonald has volunteered many years in such roles as the Northeast Junior District Concert Coordinator, the Eastern Senior District Concert Coordinator, the All State Concert Coordinator and currently as the Eastern District String Adjudication Chair. She is also an active member of the Massachusetts American String Teachers Association chapter. Mrs. MacDonald lives in Acton, MA with her husband, Matthew and their two children, Ryan and Bridget.

Fanfare Ode and Festival	Claude Gervaise Arr. Bob Margolis
On a Hymnsong of Philip Bliss	David R. Holsinger
Blue Ridge Reel	Brian Balmages
Omaha Beach	John Edmondson

Michael Keough is a 2009 graduate of the University of Massachusetts Amherst where he earned Bachelor’s degrees in Music Education and Trumpet Performance.

While at the University Michael studied trumpet with Eric Berlin and arranging with Michael Klesch. Michael served as principal trumpet in the Wind Ensemble, lead trumpet in Jazz Ensemble I, and Student Director of the 400-member Minuteman Marching Band.

Michael is currently in his fifth year of teaching at King Philip Regional Middle School in Norfolk, MA where he directs the 7th and 8th grade concert bands, middle school jazz ensemble, and is the assistant director and music arranger for the King Philip Regional High School “Pride and the Passion” Marching Band.

Under his direction the 7th and 8th grade concert bands have consistently earned gold medals at the Massachusetts Instrumental and Choral Conductors Association Concert Festival and have performed at Boston’s Symphony Hall three times. In 2012 the King Philip Regional Marching Band won the US Bands’ Division 4 Open National Championship, and in 2013 won the Division 3 Open National Championship including caption awards for Best Music, Best Visual Performance and Best Percussion.

In addition to arranging for the King Philip Regional High School Marching Band Michael also arranges for the Gardner High School Marching Band in Gardner, MA and the Ronald Reagan High School “Band of Raiders” in Pfafftown, North Carolina. Michael’s arrangements have been performed by the UMass Minuteman Marching Band, UMass Hoop Band, UMass Jazz Ensemble I, UMass Studio Orchestra, Chelmsford High School Studio Orchestra, and Metropolitan Wind Symphony.

Ballad for a Blue Horn.....Mike Steinel
Shuffle Stop.....Mike Kamuf

George Murphy is retired from Foxboro High School, where he taught for 28 years. He was formerly Music Coordinator of the Old Rochester Regional H.S./Junior H.S., and Director of Brass Studies in Revere. As a dual major (performance and education) student at the University of Lowell, and Berklee College of music, he received his BA and BMED degrees. He also studied trombone with John Coffey, Paul Gay, Phil Wilson, Hal Crook, and Bill Watrous, amongst others.

Mr. Murphy conducted the FHS Concert Band, Symphonic Winds, Marching Band, the Fifth and Eighth Grade Concert Band, the Foxboro Junior Jazz Band, and was actively involved in the FHS Jazz Ensembles. His ensembles have won numerous awards while performing throughout the New England area, including Gold Medals at the SE District Jazz Festival in MA for 27 consecutive years.

The Foxboro Junior Jazz Band has been featured, with Mr. Murphy as clinician, at the MENC Massachusetts State Convention, where they premiered an original composition by Tiger Okoshi.

A clinician, adjudicator, guest artist, and guest conductor at several festivals throughout the Northeast, Mr. Murphy was a recipient of Downbeat Magazine's Achievement Award for Jazz Education. For 28 years, he has been director of the Foxboro Summer Music programs and taught at the University of New Hampshire Summer Youth Music School (SYMS). Today he is Co-Director, with Steve Massey, of the Foxboro Summer Improvisation Camp, and is active in the Boston music scene as a trombonist. In addition to leading his own band, "Horns in the House", he has performed with some of the most outstanding musicians and bands in the area, including the Ken Hadley Big Band and Rebecca Parris.

George Murphy is a member of the Boston Musicians Union, Local 9, MENC, MICA and the IAJE board where he served as Southeast District Chairman for 14 years.
