Suite from “L’Arlesienne”.....Georges Bizet
arr. Carl Simpson

Peer Gynt Suite Selections.....Edvard Grieg
arr. Richard Meyer

A native of Lake Orion, MI, Spencer Aston is Assistant Professor of Music at Bridgewater State University where he leads the BSU Bear Band and teaches applied trumpet lessons and various music theory/history courses within the department. Prior to his appointment at BSU, he served on the faculties at UMass Boston, Boston University, and the University of New Mexico.

Dr. Aston maintains a highly active performance schedule throughout New England. As a conductor, he is comfortable leading any combination of musicians in the orchestra or wind band literature. Aston played a major role in the creation of an orchestral program at the Powers Music School where he currently serves as the Director of the Massachusetts Youth Symphony Project as well as principal conductor for the Chamber Orchestra. He is also the Music Director of the Windham Concert Band in Windham, NH. As a trumpet player, Dr. Aston holds regular positions in the Atlantic Symphony Orchestra, the Glens Falls Symphony (NY), and the New England Symphony Orchestra. Other orchestral appearances include the New Bedford Symphony, Odyssey Opera, Orchestra of Indian Hill, and the Cape Symphony.

Dr. Aston is an active adjudicator and clinician for competitions and educational ensembles including most recently the National Trumpet Competition, the Brookline Symphony Concerto Competition, and the BSU Jazz Festival. He earned the Doctor of Musical Arts degree from Boston University, Master of Music degree from the University of New Mexico, and Bachelor of Music degree from the University of Cincinnati-College Conservatory of Music. His primary conducting teachers include Charles Peltz and Dr. Terence Milligan.

Barnum and Bailey's Favorite	Karl King Jr. . arr. Jerry Brubaker

Woonsocket, Rhode Island native, Kevin Plouffe earned a Bachelor's Degree in Percussion Performance from the New England Conservatory in 1992 and a Master's Degree in Music Education with an emphasis in conducting from the University of Rhode Island in 1994. Kevin served sixteen years as band director at Woonsocket High School, where his responsibilities included directing the marching band, concert band, jazz band, and percussion ensembles, as well as serving as the music department representative. Since the fall of 2011, Kevin has taught in the Killingly, Connecticut public schools. He is the current band director and jazz band director at Killingly Intermediate School, where he teaches band to over 190 students in grade 6-8. His middle school bands have consistently won awards at local music festivals for the last five years. He is also the Killingly High School assistant marching band director and drum line instructor. In addition, Plouffe teaches percussion at Brown University through the applied music program. He also coaches the Brown University Wind Symphony Percussion Section and conducts the Brown University Percussion Ensemble. He has previously been a guest conductor of the Brown University Wind Symphony. He has been active at Brown University for the last 18 years. He is past president of the Rhode Island Chapter of the Percussive Arts Society, a position he held for over ten years. He founded the RI-PAS Percussion Ensemble adjudication festival which has been running successfully for the last fifteen years, attracting secondary level percussion ensembles and guest artists from throughout southern New England. In 2016, he was the guest conductor of the Quabbin Valley Middle School Honors Band and the RI Junior All-State Jazz Ensemble. Kevin resides in Mapleville, RI with his wife, Diane who is the director of music, an accomplished string teacher and orchestra director, in Franklin, MA, as well as a free-lance violinist, and his two daughters.

The Nearness of You.....	arr. Mark Taylor
Foot Pattin' Time.....	arr. Terry White

Craig Skeffington has been the band director at South Portland High School in Maine since 1994. His performing groups have been recognized several times during this tenure, including winning the Maine State Jazz Festival, the Berklee College of Music Festival and MusicFest Orlando. In 2003, Craig was awarded Music Educator of the Year by the Maine Music Educator's Association. He has been Maine's Jazz Activities Vice-President as well as it's Instrumental Jazz Chair. Craig has also served as President of the Maine Band Director's Association. In 2007, he was recognized by the national magazine School Band and Orchestra as one of the "50 band directors that make a difference" of 2007.

As a New England area trumpet player, Craig has a wide variety of performance credits. These include working with Natalie Cole, Wayne Bergeron, Barry Manilow, The Four Tops, Colin Raye, the Glenn Miller Big Band, the New York Voices, Kris Berg and the Metroplexity Big Band, the Smithsonian Jazz Masterworks Orchestra from Washington, D.C and touring with the Artie Shaw Orchestra. As a member of the New Hampshire based Seacoast Big Band and Portland Jazz Orchestras, Craig has performed with artists such as Bobby Shew, Louis Bellson, Bob Mintzer, Mike Tomaro, Frank Foster, Clark Terry, George Stone, Denis Diblasio, Kris Berg and Bob Florence.

As a composer and arranger, Craig has studied with Bob Florence, Toshiko Akioshi and Don Stratton. His pieces appear in the most recent NYSSMA manual and JW Pepper catalogs - achieving "Editors Choice" status. He has also been reviewed in the International Association of Jazz Educator's Journal. In December of 2007 and again most recently in 2010, his music was performed at the prestigious Mid - West Band and Orchestra clinic in Chicago. Groups ranging from middle school jazz bands to college and military bands have performed his music. Craig is currently an adjunct staff member at the University of Southern Maine where he teaches courses in jazz arranging and applied writing. Craig currently resides in South Portland with his wife Carrie and their two daughters, Hannah and Molly. His music can be heard at www.craigskeffington.com and on the Portland Jazz Orchestra's most recent CD entitled "Nor'Easter" available on iTunes.

Bonnie Narcisi is thrilled to be back as the Central District Junior High Choral Director for a second time! Recently retired from public education, Ms. Narcisi served as the K-12 Performing Arts Director for the Shrewsbury Public Schools for 16 years. She has conducted choral performance tours in Italy, Ireland, Portugal and Spain as well as accompanying for the Youth of America Choral Festival Choir in several European venues. The Shrewsbury High School A Cappella Choir has received superior ratings under her direction in Festivals held in Boston, New York, Baltimore, Virginia Beach, Hawaii and the Bahamas. Bonnie has previously conducted the Wachusett Junior High Festival Choir as well as the Quabbin Valley Senior Festival Choir, and enjoys adjudicating for the Central District Junior Choir as well as Great East Music Festivals. She is co-founder of the annual Central Mass. Show Choir Festival and has directed numerous musical theatre shows. Ms. Narcisi is gratified to be a founding member and Artistic Director of The Regatta Players of Shrewsbury, a flourishing community theatre company spawned by the passionate request of a handful of Shrewsbury HS graduates. Bonnie is an accomplished pianist, having accompanied for numerous Junior and Senior High District Festivals as well as the Mass. All-State Festival. She has been an active member of the Central District throughout her musical career, having served as the Central District Senior High Coordinator, Secretary, and Chairman. Additionally Bonnie has presented workshops and taught choral classes as an adjunct professor for U Mass Lowell, and is proud to have been featured as a partner of the Shrewsbury High School “Dream Team” on the cover of The Choral Director magazine.
