Good afternoon, and welcome to the 60th annual Central District Massachusetts Music Educators' Senior High Honors Festival. We thank you for joining us in celebration of the wonderful accomplishments of the fine high school musicians performing today. Their successes are in no small part due to the support and guidance of those in attendance today. We would like to remind you to please be respectful of all the musicians and other members of the audience during today's showcase by refraining from the use of flash photography during the performances. We also remind you that we are making a live recording of the performance and would appreciate your cooperation in turning all cell phones and pagers off until after the concert.

Thank you and enjoy!!

Concert Band

Dr. Christian Wilhjelms, conductor, professional musician and educator, has been the Ridgewood Concert Band's Musical Director since it was founded in 1983. He was also Music Director of the renowned Goldman Memorial Band in New York City. As a guest conductor, Dr. Wilhjelms has conducted the West Point Band, the United States Army Field Band, the Virginia Wind Symphony, the Allentown Band, the Hanover Winds, the Raritan Wind Symphony, and the Norwalk Symphony. Dr. Wilhjelms has been the conductor of the annual New York City Tuba Christmas since 2000. He was recently appointed the conductor of the Ramapo College Concert Band. As a French horn player, he has performed under the world's great conductors including Leonard Bernstein, Seiji Ozawa, Sir Colin Davis and Arthur Fiedler. Dr. Wilhjelms has played the French horn with the Boston Symphony, the Boston Pops and, as a principal, with the Boston Ballet Orchestra, the Boston Opera Orchestra and the Richmond Symphony.

An honors graduate of the New England Conservatory, he received his doctorate from Columbia University in 1998. He has been the band director at Pascack Hills High School since 1984. Dr. Wilhjelms was recently honored by his election to the American Bandmasters Association. He is the 2012 recipient of the Outstanding Conductor Award presented by the Association of Concert Bands. Dr. Wilhjelms is the state chair for the National Band Association. In 2013, he was elected to the Board of Directors for the Association of Concert Bands.

Orchestra

Walter Pavasaris graduated from the Hartt College of Music with a Bachelor of Music Education Degree. He then became a member of the United States Military Academy Band at West Point, New York. After completing his tour of duty with the band, he earned a Master of Music in String Instruments from the University of Michigan and a Doctor of Education Degree from Boston University.

His teaching career began in the Marshfield Public Schools. Dr. Pavasaris then became the Director of Orchestras and string teacher for the Belmont Massachusetts Public Schools. During his tenure in Belmont the string program flourished both in the elementary and secondary schools. Under his baton, the Belmont High School and Chenery Middle School Orchestras consistently earned superior ratings at numerous state, regional and international music festivals. Additionally, the Belmont High School Orchestra was selected to perform at the All-Eastern MENC Conference in Boston in 1983. From 1990 to 2009 Walter was Coordinator of Fine and Performing Arts for the Lexington (Massachusetts) Public Schools. His primary responsibilities included advocating for the arts and creating and implementing curricula in the areas of music, visual arts, and drama. Under his leadership, the arts maintained an integral place within each student's basic education. Walter continuously modeled his passion and belief that music is a life long endeavor that transcends gender, age, and ethnicity.

For over three decades Dr. Pavasaris has positively impacted many music educators while serving as a faculty member at The Boston Conservatory, New England Conservatory and Boston University. Whether teaching conducting, string pedagogy, instrumental methods, his students have experienced Walter's enthusiasm and passion for the artistry of being a musician and educator. In June 2009 Dr. Pavasaris was appointed to a full time faculty position in the Music Education Department at Boston Conservatory of Music. He currently also holds faculty positions at Gordon College and Berklee College of Music.

Jazz Ensemble

Dave Sporny became the Low Brass Instructor at the Interlochen Arts Academy in Michigan after earning his Bachelors and Masters degrees from the University of Illinois. During his 16 years at Interlochen he founded the Jazz Studies programs at the Academy and at the National Music Camp. He led the Dave Sporny Big Band and the Interlochen Jazz Quintet while being an active performer throughout the Midwest. Sing coming to the University in 1982, he has been a frequent recitalist, clinician and freelance trombonist in New England. Being equally comfortable in both classical and jazz traditions, Mr. Sporny has appeared in concert halls throughout the world including Carnegie Hall, Lincoln Center, Kennedy Center, Tanglewood and Ravinia. Tours with various ensembles have taken him to South America, Europe, Japan and Russia. He has performed with the Chicago Little Symphony, the Northwood Orchestra, Opera North, the Springfield and Hartford Orchestras, Ancora Chamber Ensemble, and the Corporate Brass. In 1997 he was chosen as principal trombone for the Festival Orchestra of Santa Domingo in the Dominican Republic.

Most recently as a member of the Silk Road Ensemble, he performs with Yo Yo Ma. He has also performed with The Tonight Show Orchestra, Tommy and Jimmy Dorsey Orchestras, Les Elgart, Joe Williams, Frank Sinatra Jr., Aretha Franklin, Dave Brubeck, to name a few. Dave Sporny is the founder and musical director of the Amherst Jazz Orchestra. In 2004 the International Association of Jazz Education presented him with a Lifetime Achievement Award. He has recorded 12 albums and 17 CD's for RCA, Brownstone, Seabreeze, Jazz Masters and Original Cast Recordings. He is a voting member of the National Academy of Recording Arts and Sciences.

Chorus

Ashley Nelson holds a bachelor's and master's degree in music education from Boston University's College of Fine Arts and has been the successful director of many choirs during her career. She conducted choirs in the Hopkinton and Norwood Public Schools, and is most recently expanding the choral program at King Philip Regional High School. She is also currently the music director for the Charles River Chorale based in Millis, MA.

Ashley has served as chorus manager and clinician at Massachusetts Music Educators conferences and was also the Choral Festival Chairperson of the Massachusetts Instrumental & Choral Conductor's Association for over a decade. She is currently Membership Chair for the Massachusetts' chapter of the American Choral Directors Association and also adjudicates for festival auditions and performances, competitions, and provides clinics to area choirs. Additionally, Ashley is an arranger of choral works, several published by Santa Barbara Music Publishing, Inc., and some self-published through JWPepper MyScore. She also enjoys her private studio of voice, piano, and music theory students.
