2. Sight-reading - The student will have one minute to examine the sight-reading. While previewing the excerpt, the student may tap and/or hum or sing quietly to themselves. The Senior Instrumental Sight Reading will be; at a Level of 2+ through 3+, ♩ = 72 to 120, in a major key (3 sharps through 3 flats), with accidentals, dynamics and assorted articulations and or rudiments. The Junior Instrumental Sight-Reading will be; at a Level of 2, ♩ = 72 to 120, in a major key (3 sharps through 3 flats), with accidentals, dynamics and assorted articulations and or rudiments.
3. Scales played from memory – These are instrument specific. See the Central District website at www.cdmmea.org for appropriate files.

VOCAL AUDITION REQUIREMENTS

Senior Vocal Requirements

1. Vocal solo selection performed using the official Central District recording available on the website (www.cdmmea.org).
2. Interval exercises: Students will be required to sing five intervals chosen at random from the list of intervals available on the Central District website (www.cdmmea.org). Students will be asked to sing one selected interval from each line. Each exercise will be played twice on the keyboard, after which the student will sing back the example.
3. The student will sight-sing an eight measure phrase in a major tonality. The phrase will be written at a Level of 2, in a major key, starting on Do with no accidentals. The excerpt may not be in the same key as the required solo. Any major key signature through 4 sharps/4 flats may be used. The time signature will be either 2/4, 3/4, or 4/4 meter. Soprano/alto/tenor will be in G-clef (tenor sung down the octave), and bass in F-clef (same example as Sop., Alto, and Tenor). Students will need to know where "Do" is. Both the rhythm and pitches of the sight reading exercise will be adjudicated at the same time. The student will be given, from the keyboard a tonic major triad, followed by the tonic "Do," note. The student will have one minute to examine the sight-reading. While previewing the excerpt, the student may tap and/or hum or sing quietly to themselves. They will again be given the tonic major triad, followed by the tonic note. The student then sings the exercise. Solfege syllables, numbers, neutral syllables or any other method maybe used for both this section and intervals.
4. Each student will be asked to sing a Major scale for voice placement only. Any syllable is allowed. This does not count toward the student's score or acceptance.
Soprano – G Major
Alto – A Major
Tenor – F Major
Bass – A Major

Junior Vocal Requirements

1. Vocal solo selection performed using the recording available with the solo book. A thirty second sample will be available on the Central District website (www.cdmmea.org) that will indicate how the selection will begin. Due to copyright laws, we are unable to post the full recording of the selections. The full recordings may be purchased with the book from the publisher or music dealer.
2. Interval exercises: Students will be required to sing four intervals chosen at random from the list of intervals available on the Central District website (www.cdmmea.org). Each exercise will be played twice on the keyboard, after which the student will sing back the example.
