

Registration and Details:

www.rimea.org/pd

MUSIC FOR EVERY CHILD: Diversity and Social Consciousness in Music Education

Designed for music educators at all levels, this conference combines national, regional and local experts in the fields of music education, social work and community-driven arts programs to explore how to meet the musical and social needs of the diversity of students in southeast New England. Topics include social justice, behavioral supports and resources and social and emotional learning, among others.

Speakers include:

- ♪ Drs. David Elliot and Marissa Silverman
“Advancing Social Justice through Music Education”
- ♪ Dr. Mimi Mumm, Licensed Clinical Social Worker
“Recognize, Relate, Refer”
- ♪ Wayne Kilcline
“Teaching Elementary Music in Urban Schools”
- ♪ Alex Lucini
“The Outside Game: How to Strengthen Middle School Programs by Building Relationships with Outside Players”
- ♪ Danielle Trial
“From the Ground Up: Building a Music Program”
- ♪ Other sessions include Hillary Jones from Girls Rock! RI and Alice Woods from the Rhode Island Department of Education

Co-sponsored by

- Rhode Island Music Education Association
- RIC Department of Music, Theatre and Dance
- RIC School of Social Work

Saturday, Jan. 13, 2018

9 a.m.–3 p.m.

John Nazarian Center
for the Performing Arts
600 Mt. Pleasant Ave
Providence, Rhode Island
02908

$40 registration
$15 for students

Lunch included!

6 hours of PD available!

CONTACT INFORMATION:

Dr. Robert Franzblau
rfranzblau@ric.edu
401-456-9514

